WILL

CLASS

The famous rancher from Texas, Mr. Frank Nettleton, and his wife, the former Miss Jennie Lee Goldsmith, and their twelve little "nettles" were seen at the Quenemo corn carnvial showing their Registered Angus Cattle.

Flash: Sweet Mamma String Bean, the former Miss Joyce Wellborn, has just taken Miss Margaret Truman's position on the Brush Creek Follies Program, winning her esteemed place with her new featured song hit, "Twiggy River."

We have just received the exciting news that Miss Ruth Ann Skidmore, has just been promoted to Chief gravedigger of the Walk 'em In and Carry 'em Out Skid-No-More hospital.

Miss Janis-hold-em-tight Peters, after faithfully courting Mr. Richard Mickelson for twenty-five long years has finally persuaded him to let her announce their engagement. Her comment: Love that Old man!

Mrs. P.H. Menninger (Phyllis Markley) the well-known child psychologist has discovered a new method for controlling delinquent children--capital punishment.

Miss Barbara Swisher, a former concert pianist, has recently taken up the accordion so she can make a living on the street corners. She has a monkey with her named Mike.

Mr. Daryl Michael, a retired athlete, is heard to be engaged in monkey business.

Miss Betty Ellen Sipes (and we regret to say Miss) is still going to Gardner to see one of her many masculine admirers. We are hoping she'll decide soon.

Mr. Leland Jensen was seen at the American Royal last week showing his Hereford cattle and was also seen squiring his Indian friend from Oklahoma. He can't seem to decide between his many hometown girls and Minnie.

"Charmboy" remembered by his old friends as Larry Bailey, has recently completed a tour of all WAC camps in the U.S. His only comment: "They're either too young or too old."

Melville Hanna, a rich bachelor farmer from Texas, has recently discovered oil on his twenty-acre farm. Latest report: He has just bought the Brooklyn Bridge.

Harry Turvey, the famous rancher from north of town, has reported his method of making money "sheep herding."

Miss Shirley Pearson, the famous socialite from New York City, is marrying the fabulously wealthy socialist Alan Evans of Lyndon. This makes his first wife and her seventh husband. She took her maiden name back after all previous marriages.

Charles Beatty, the expert horseman, is still trying to persuade the drugstore cowboys to ride to Lawrence in all their festive dress.

Charles Nicolay has just become one of Joey Chitwoods' Helldrivers. His comment: Love to wreck them cars.

Bill Persinger by relying on his good looks has all the girls swooning when he appears on his fifteen-minute television show. The name of his show is "Lone Bill Rides Again."

Dick Varner noted for his slow talking has just been announced the world's best news commentator by the Radio Guild Corporation.

Rex Featherston, noted lobbyist, is in Washington, still arguing against the dam project. Latest report is that he still has his head above water.

Bob Nelson, famous for his infectious giggle, has just signed a contract on the "Can You Top This Giggle" program.

Dorothy Lewis, well-known girl athlete, has just swum the English Channel. Her only comment was "Baby, it's cold in there."

The expert south paw, Paul Brecheisen, has just finished his 50th season with the New York Yankees. He plans to retire when he reaches middle age.

Dale Bowers, one of the more intellectual students of our class, has been elected President of the Bell Telephone Company. He reports that business is buzzing with little Bells.

Bill Farrar, after many years of passionately practicing his clarinet, has finally persuaded Mr. Wiley to let him toot his horn in last chair of the K.U. orchestra.

Junior Class History

In the fall of '48, thirty-two voices were heard ringing through the halls of good ole' L. H. S. In our first class meeting we elected the following officers: President, Glenn Bauck, Vice-President, Shirley Bell, Secretary, Marilyn Leeper, and Treasurer, Miriam Blackburn. Miss Pretz was our class sponsor. During the year, we lost Bob Boyle and Maxine Douglas. Maxine represented our class in the Homecoming festivities. We had two parties during the year, the Homecoming dance and a hayrack ride.

In the fall of '49, we were back again, this time with the addition of Carol Phelon, Jeanne Sassman, Charles White, and Doris Husted. At our first meeting as sophomores, we chose Bruce Hotchkiss as President, Marilyn Leeper as Vice-President, Thedareth Retschlag as Secretary, and Jerry Silver as Treasurer. Mr. Colle was our sponsor. Jeanne Sassman and Charles White left us and Mary Ann Bradshaw joined us later on. We sponsored a chili supper and party at Christmas.

When the doors opened in the fall of 1950, we were ready for a busy year as juniors. At our first meeting the following were elected as officers: President, Jerry Silver, Vice-President, LeRoy Crocker, Secretary, Velma Duff, and Treasurer, Viola Mickelson. Our sponsors were Mrs. Carley and Mr. Mills. Shirley Secrest and Rita Phelon left us, and Beryl Bell and David Turner came. Our class was well represented in dramatics, music, and athletics. We presented "Hobgoblin House" as our junior play. Velma Duff was Homecoming attendant.

Sophomore Class History

Carol Peterson

Thirteen freshmen entered school in the fall of 1949. They chose as their sponsor, Mrs. Bushno. The class officers were: President, George Gardner, Vice-President, Benny Warren, Secretary, Beverly White, Treasurer, Georgia Skidmore. The attendant for Homecoming was Beverly White. New students who entered school at a later date were Gene Cardwell and David Bradshaw.

In 1950, thirteen sophomores started their second year of high school. The class officers were: President, George Gardner; Vice-President, John Leeper; Secretary, Georgia Skidmore; Treasurer, Carol Peterson; Reporter, Joan Nettleton. Mr. Colle was chosen as the class sponsor. Georgia Skidmore was elected as the sophomore attendant for Homecoming. The sophomores had charge of initiation, which went off very nicely.

FRESHMAN OFFICERS

CLASS HISTORY

The Freshmen of 1950-51 entered high school with a class of twenty-three. This is much larger than the eighth grade of last year which had only 14.

The class officers, elected at our first meeting are as follows: Miles Rickart, President, Vivian Cramer, Vice-President, Jim McDaniel, Secretary, Barbara Bronson, Treasurer, and Max Prosser, Myran Dusenbury, Eldon Sanders, Reporters.

Our class sponsored the Homecoming Dance, in the grade school gym, following our game with Melvern. Myran Dusenbury was the Queen's attendant from the Freshman Class.

Each of us has enjoyed our Freshman year and is looking forward to our future years in high school.
